The thematic focus of the third ISLE conference is inter- and intra-disciplinary research.

The following keynote speakers have agreed to participate

Prof. Jan Blommaert, Tilburg University
Prof. Joan Bresnan, Stanford University
Prof. David Britain, University of Berne
Prof. Susan M. Fitzmaurice, University of Sheffield
Prof. William Foley, University of Sydney

In line with the research profiles of the plenary speakers, we particularly invite contributions in the following areas of research:

- English linguistics and globalization
- Empirical foundations of syntax, linguistic typology and probabilistic grammar
- The interface between dialectology and human geography
- English linguistics and literature
- Anthropological linguistics and syntactic theory

Submission of abstracts (max. 500 words) is invited via our ConfTool website
<https://www.conftool.pro/isle3/>

Participants can also submit abstracts for some of the workshops directly to the workshop convenors – details to be found at <http://www.isle3.uzh.ch/Workshops.html>

Please note that ISLE membership is a prerequisite for participation at the conference. Find out more about ISLE and how to join at
